

all of the Great War Museum apply preventive measures implemented by the government for the public-access building.

Access to the museum is subject to strict control according to "Vigipirate risque attentat" plan.

Cases of non-compliance with the conditions could justify the denial of access to the museum and/ or a call to police forces.

Backpacks, big handbags, suitcases, travel bags are not allowed for the museum as a whole.

Only the small handbags (28 x 26 x 19 cm maximum) are allowed but could be opened for a visual control. A size check could be done by our staff at the welcome desk.

Every object/ parcel abandoned, with unidentified contents, will involve the establishment of a security zone, a reporting
