Historical of the Great War Museum apply preventive measures decided by the government for the public-access building.

Access to the museum is subject to strict conditions according to “Vigipirate risque attentat” plan.

Cases of non-compliance with the conditions could justify the refusal access to the museum and/or a call to police forces.

1. Backpacks, big handbags, suitcases, travel bags are forbidden in the museum as a whole.

2. Only the small handbags (28 x 26 x 19 cm maximum) are allowed but could be opened for a visual control. A size control could be done by our staff at the welcome desk.

3. Every object/ parcel abandoned, with unidentified owner, involve the establishment of a security zone, a reporting to the authorities and an intervention of special services (mine clearance).

4. Historical of the Great War museum would like to thank our visitors to respect these conditions for everybody’s security and to show understanding of the slowdown due to the checking at the entrance.
